

Alamance Artisans Meeting August 19, 2025

The group began by enjoying a wonderful potluck meal provided by members.

In Beth's absence, Anita welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order with 16 members present. New/former member Marilyn Petersen was introduced.

Danian Rader and Lindsey Nash from ACC were introduced as special guests.

The Treasurer's Report and Minutes of the June meeting were made available.

There were reports from Alamance Arts Affiliate Meeting, an upcoming Alamance Arts fundraiser, and display space at Harrison's restaurant (see Anita for more information).

Susan Kern and Carolyn Bell were acknowledged for being the subject of an article in the Orange County News (Mebane).

Upcoming Burlington Artist League events that are opportunities for collaboration with AAG members:

Fall regional competition in October

Alamance Photography Club show September-October

Burlington Writer's Club, Poetry & Art, where artists interpret poems

Double Vision in March

Spring Show

The BAL gallery is currently featuring an exhibit of African Masks.

The Alamance Arts Affiliate Shelves will feature, Martha Sink, Beth Hill, and Carolyn Bell in August and September.

Events:

Fall Into Art will be held October 18 from 10 am-5pm at the ACC BioTech Building. We are receiving a great deal of support and collaboration from ACC for this event.

We currently have around 11 members interested in participating, with space for an estimated 15-18. Set up for the event will be on Friday the 17th. Paper applications are now available and the online form will be ready soon. The cost is $80 per booth and the deadline for application is September 6. Each participant will be asked to assist with at least one task to make the show a success.

Our next CCL (Center for Creative Leadership) show will be in April 2027 and we will be on a three year rotation.

Announcements:

There is a new gallery in Greensboro, the Marshall Muse Gallery that may have some opportunities for individual and group shows.

Merritt Barnett had one of his pieces accepted for exhibit at the National Bonsai Pot Competition.

Linda Fowler and Linda Revill will attend the NC Watercolor Society Exhibit in Rocky Mount.

Deb Barnett will be participating in ArtStock in Greensboro.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Martha Sink, Secretary
