

Alamance Artisans Meeting September 16, 2025

After a social time, the meeting was called to order with 10 members present.

Treasurer's Report: Current balance is $8,335.

The minutes of the August meeting were reviewed and approved.

No new Patrons have been added.

There was no Website/Social Media report.

Hospitality: Jan and Linda Fowler provided this month's refreshments. Marilyn and Dottie will provide for October, and Martha in November. It was noted that ice and water are available in the Alamance Arts kitchen.

Fall Into Art:

Flyers, making sure each artist's work is pictured will be created. Some flyers and postcards will be printed and distributed through Alamance Arts. Electronic copies will be sent to all members who are encouraged to post on social media. The information will be in the Alamance Arts newsletter.

A MailChimp message will be sent to all members, requesting volunteers to help with the event, donations for the raffle, and copies of the flyers and postcards.

Alamance Arts:

The Affiliate shelves will be unavailable until January.

Upcoming events of interest to members:

Alamance Arts Winter Wonderland

BAL Fall Regional Competition October

BAL Alamance Photography Club show September-October

Upcoming Burlington Artist League events that are opportunities for collaboration with AAG members:

Fall regional competition in October

Burlington Writer's Club, Poetry & Art, where artists interpret poems

Double Vision in March

Spring Show

The BAL gallery is currently featuring an exhibit of African Masks.

Pawliday Gift Market Nov. 15 seeks vendors & donations

Pride Festival in Burlington

Oak Ridge Presbyterian Arts & Crafts Show

Alamance Eldercare Merry Market

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Martha Sink, Secretary