Alamance Artisans at CCL – 2027
Info to members

Alamance Artisans has been invited to display our talent at the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL) in Greensboro, April 2, through the end of July 28,2027.

Our previous guild shows at CCL have been quite successful. Participation will be on a first come, first served basis beginning Tuesday, October 20th. Valid participation requires that your 2026 dues are current at the time of your acceptance and that 2027 dues are paid by January 15, 2027.

Attached is the CCL agreement and the AAG agreement. Please review both and email Dottie Blanchard, dblanchard418@gmail.com, a signed copy of the AAG agreement that and acknowledges that you have read and agree to their requirements and deadlines. Your sign up is not complete until the AAG Agreement has been received.

Find out more about this prestigious international executive training organization at https://www.ccl.org/our-locations/americas/greensboro. The center hosts a lovely and well-attended reception for each exhibition. Participation in the show is free for current Alamance Artisans members in good standing. Artists are responsible for delivering and retrieving their works according to the CCL schedule. We expect to include about 20 2D artists showing about 5 or 6 pieces each – depending on size. The Center can also accommodate a total of 25-30 3D pieces. Since 3D pieces sell particularly well, CCL may be able to accommodate a few "backstock" pieces to fill in.

In January, (date to be determined) all participants must send Dottie their media descriptions, including whether 2D or 3D, and the works' approximate sizes (framed if applicable).

CCL will send invitations to their extensive list for our reception (to be held on Friday, April 30th.) You are invited to submit 1 or 2 photos of work you are committing to the exhibit through April 30th for possible inclusion on the invitations. Images for the invitation are due no later than February 5, 2027 to Beth Hill, hilbeth@gmail.com

Delivery date to CCL is Friday, April 2nd between 10:00am-2:00pm. Artists will sign up for 30 minute delivery time slot.. We will need volunteers to help check in the artworks as they arrive and when they are retrieved. Pickup will be Thursday, July 29, 2027.

Communications will be by email only.
